

1 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
2 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

3
4 Case No.: 2:22-cv-00054-JAD-DJA

4 James Paul Otterson,

5 Plaintiff

6 v.

7 Uber Eats, et al.,

8 Defendants

Order Denying Motions

ECF Nos. 12, 13

9
10 On April 11, 2022, Plaintiff James Paul Otterson filed motions entitled “Motion to 11 Reconsider” and “Motion to Change Venue.” In both motions, he asks the court to “move the 12 trial, as well as all trial-related deadlines and non-trial-related deadlines to the following date:
13 04/08/22.”¹ The court denies this request because no trial or trial-related deadlines have yet been
14 set in this case, so there are no such deadlines to move.

15 The court also notes that the caption on both of these motions reflects that the defendants
16 are “Intermountain HealthCare and Dr. Edward Clark.”² But Intermountain and Clark are not
17 parties to this case; this case is against Uber Eats, Inc. and GrubHub Inc.

18 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the motions to reconsider and change venue
19 [ECF Nos. 12, 13] are DENIED.

20 Dated: April 11, 2022

21
22 U.S. District Judge Jennifer A. Dorsey

23 ¹ ECF Nos. 12, 13.

² Id.